Mother Kills Her Two Children, Then Fires Bullet Into Own Body

A distraught Redwood City mother shot and killed her two children before turning the revolver on herself Saturday night in a carefully-planned murder-suicide that was still only partially explained Monday. Edward Franklyn Barrick III, was slain bya single shot from a .38 revolver and his body was carried into an adjacent room where the mother, Rena June Barrick, 31, fired a second shot that killed Marjorie Lue, 4. A third bullet into her own breast sent her lunging onto the bed beside her dead daughter.

* * * * * * * * * * * * * * *

Their bodies were discovered at 6:15 p.m., by the father, Edward F. Barrick II, as he returned to the family home at 442 Park St.

Barrick, an electrician and part-time clerk in a Redwood City market, told police and coroner's deputies his wife had been under treatment for nervousness and had been grieving over the death of her parents last Summer

He was at a loss to further explain the tragedy that occurred on the eve of a family birthday celebration.

Barrick told Officers R. F. West and Earl Whitmore he and his wife had planned a family dinner Saturday evening.

Mrs. Barrick, whose birthday was yesterday, and the boy who would have been eight years old Monday, were to be guests of honor at the affair.

A birthday cake, inscribed "Happy Birthday," was on the dining room buffet when police arrived at the scene.

The bereaved husband told police he had talked with his wife at 11 a.m. when she came into the market where he is employed. She appeared in good spirits when they discused the scheduled celebration, he said.

When he arrived home at 5 p.m., he was locked out of his attractive bungalow, and went next door to the home of his sister, identified by police as a Mrs. Snider.

Believing his wife and children were still downtown, he went on an errand for his sister while awaiting their return, he told officers.

Shortly after 6 o'clock, he forced open a side window and thrust his hand through to open the door from the inside, he continued.

Dazed and horrified by the sight of the three dead in the rear bedroom, he ran to a neighbor's home and telephoned police.

Police found the neatly-dressed body of Mrs. Barrick next to the three-year-old girl on the bed.

The boy lie on a rug in the center of the room. The death gun was on the floor nearby.

Officer West said bloodstains and a bullet hole in the mattress in the children's room indicated the boy had been shot there and his body carried into the rear room.

A note in an envelope addressed to Mrs. Mae Beraldo, 1822 22nd Ave., San Francisco, was found on the kitchen stove.

It read: "Papers: For whatever wrong I've done I was torchered into I love my family June."

At the bottom of the unpunctuated writing, "Don't want them to turn out bad" had been added.

A note addressed to Barrick reading: "Honey: For whatever I've done I was torchered I love you (signed) June." It was on a bureau beside the holster of the death gun.

Deputy Coroner James Flynn said Mrs. Barrick had asked neighbors how the gun was operated about 1 p.m.

None of the neighbors reported hearing the gun shots, police said. All windows and doors in the house had been closed, and arriving officers found the radio playing loudly.

Dep. Coroners John E. Layng and Flynn placed time of death of the three near 4 p.m.

The gun shots were almost instantly fatal, they said.

Funeral services for the three will be held Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. at the Layng & Tinney Funeral Home. Interment will follow at Woodlawn Memorial Park, Colma.

The couple had been married 12 years, and had resided in Redwood City the past two years, Flynn said.

Mrs. Barrick was a native of Michigan. She leaves her husband, a sister, Mrs. Ruth Murphy of San Francisco, and a brother, Jack Williams of Georgia.

The children are survived by their father and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Barrick.

John Ryan Named to Head Underpass Study Committee

John E. Ryan, Redwood City druggist, was named chairman of the Uderpass Study Committee at an organization meeting Tuesday night.

Joe Territo was elected secretary of the committee recently appointed by Mayor W. W. Hilton to study feasibility of constructing an underpass to eliminate the Broadway or other downtown railroad crossing.

First regular meeting of the committee was tentatively set for Feb. 19, when representatives from Palo Alto will be asked to discuss construction of the underpass there.

"We have to start at the bottom," Ryan pointed out today, explaining the committee was anxious to formulate a plan for study of the project.

He said the committee would follow a pattern set by the Hospital Study Committee by inviting experts to discuss phases of the matter at the meetings, and by making field trips.

Marigolds are grown in pots in England as a choice kitchen herb, which is used for flavoring soups.

Veteran Injured In Accident Here

Gerald Wade, 27, Dibble General Hospital soldier, suffered injuries Wednesday when his motorcycle crashed head-on into a car driven by Harland A. Fleemer, 30, of Rt. 2, Box 2604, Whipple Rd., Redwood City, police reported.

The soldier was taken to Dibble by Peninsula Ambulance following the crash at Diller St. and El Camino Real at 7:27 p.m., police said.

Wade's condition was described as "good" by hospital attendants today.

Pair Both File Divorce Papers

Mrs. Esther Marie Evans of San Mateo beat her husband, William Robert Evans, bartender, to the punch in suing for divorce.

Evans filed suit for divorce in superior court Monday, and when his suit was filed, his attorney, J. A. Branson of San Mateo, was notified that Evans' wife filed suit on Saturday. Both charged cruelty.

The couple was married Feb. 3, 1944, and separated last Wednesday. Thereare no children and no community property. Mrs. Evans, who is employed at Community Hospital, states in her complaint that her husband earns $450 a month.

Plan to Build Soon On New Park Site

Redwood City recreation commissioners Tuesday recommended city acceptance of the 8-lot park site offered by Daniel Stafford, and suggested erection of a building begin by Aug. 1.

Their action followed hearing of protests from several property owners who objected to the play area in the first residential area.

Nearly all protests from six persons who appeared at the meeting were withdrawn following assurance from the commission that a structure would be in keeping with the fine residential area.

During the meeting, the commission also heard suggestions for improvements at the yacht harbor, and voted to ask the council to determine whether recreation commissioners or port commissioners would have jurisdiction over improvements.

Police Seeking Clues In Death of Veteran Mangled by Train

Discovery of the dismembered body of a recently-discharged army veteran early Monday sent San Carlos police in search of clues that might determine whether the death was a suicide, accident or possible homicide.

The victim, found on the railroad tracks near the Arcade Bldg., in San Carlos, was identified by police as Gillette G. Hayhome, 32, of 2345 Middlefield Rd., Redwood City.

Police, who found the decapitated body after a northbound engineer reported seeing a human body on the tracks "near Belmont," said the victim had apparently been struck by a train shortly after 3 a.m.

A wallet lying near part of the body provided papers that led to his identity.

Hayhome quit his job at the Johns-Manville Products Corp. in Redwood City Monday morning after explaining he would answer a newspaper advertisement offering employment in Arabia.

He talked with his landlord at 2 p.m. Monday and complained of feeling ill, police said. Officers were unable to locate persons who had later talked with the ex-soldier, and his presence on the track at the early hour was unexplained.

A search of his personal effects in his room disclosed a divorce decree from Cecilia Hayhome which became final Oct. 22, in San Mateo County Superior Court.

Dep. Coroner Francis Tinney this afternoon was attempting to locate a Rose Wickham or a Rose Gordi of Los Angeles, believed to be his sister.

Hayhome, veteran of 16 months service overseas and participant in three Italian campaigns, failed to report for work Saturday, company officials reported. He was described as a "quiet fellow, but rather jolly."

San Carlos police this afternoon sought his former wife in order to obtain photographs of the victim and possibly trace his movements Monday afternoon through picture identification.

Police in the meantime recorded the investigation as "fatal accident or suicide," with no clues as yet indicating he may have been the victim of foul play.

San Carlos, Belmont and Redwood City police, along with sheriff's deputies, searched the railroad tracks following a report made in San Mateo by trainmen of an early commuter train.

The body was discovered at 6:08 a.m.

His remains were removed to the Layng & Tinney Funeral Home.

R.C. Navy Man Takes Top Honor

RT3/c John B. DiFranco of Redwood City recently was named the man of the week at Cavite, Philippines.

An article in Navy News states that "John has done a wonderful job in helping to improve the facilities of Cavite Prep. Outside of his many other duties, he has a full-time job teaching radio and electricity and tutoring in algebra, trigonometry, slide rule and Spanish."

JOHN DI FRANCO

Before going into the navy, DiFranco attended Sequoia High School, from which he graduated in 1938, and San Mateo Junior College, where he majored in sociology. He was a civilian employe with the navy, working as specialist in charge of communication circuits on submarines of the Pacific fleet, before entering the regular service.

He attended Radio Technician Service School at Del Monte for three months and at Treasure Island for seven months. He was then sent to the Philippines for duty at Samar, Leyte and Cavite.

After his discharge, DiFranco plans to return to Redwood City to continue his schooling.

He has two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Faia and Mrs. Clifford Bentson of Redwood City, and six brothers. One of them, Jacob DiFranco of Redwood City, was recently discharged from the service.

The South San Francisco woman, who was an employe of Bethlehem Steel Co. at the time of the accident, suffered fractures of both her legs and numerous other injuries, the complaint states.

CHIEF NAMED IN WILL

News of Commuters

BY JOE CABOOSE

It is trite to say, the political pot is beginning to boil in Redwood City and San Mateo County. Politics is full of hackneyed expressions that have been used down the ages, like "Joe Blow tossed his hat into the ring," etc. And yet, politics, like love and Spring, is ever now; ever challenging and full of surprises. From ingredients tossed into the local political pot this year come promises of some unusually interesting stew. But Commuters, per se, are not interested in politics. So pardon us for even mentioning the subject.

We are right proud of Commuter Councilman Chester Armstrong for his fine work on the hospital study committee and for the splendid report which, we understand, was largely authored by Chester. The shuttling councilman throughout his aldermanic tenure has consistently used good judgement while sitting in the municipal legislature. Were it not for two things we should like to run him for mayor; one, he is not up for re-election this year, and two, the Commuters are not in politics.

The Commuters have several other distinguished members serving the community in official capacity of whom we are particularly proud, to wit: Bert Morgan, chairman of the planning commission; Elmer K. Ross, chairman of the recreation commission; Tom Cutting, chairman of the board of review, and W. J. McKeegan of the library board. These men are all sterling characters, fearles and incorruptible. Any and all would make splendid public servants in elective offices. The only reason we do not propose them . . . the Commuters are not in politics.

But to get away from politicians for the moment, Bill Curran sure left us holding the sack at St. Julien's restaurant in San Francisco last Monday noon. Bill promised to show at the luncheon with a speaker on "Transportation." (A purely non-political subject.) The banquet room was jammed to "last man" capacity, but no Curran and no speaker. Finally, Elmer Ross, unprepared as he was, and with great reluctance, stepped into the braoch and made a fine impromptu talk on "Planned Recreation," or "Fun in Redwood City." As he spoke, we couldn't help thinking what a forceful and dynamic mayor or county executive he would make. Of course, such a thought is irrelevant for a Commuter.

But to get back to Curran, and away from politics, Bill said he evidently had misunderstood the arrangements. He said he was all set for a dinner meeting Tuesday at the Fly Tray on Sutter and that he had a speaker all lined up to talk on the atomic bomb. Rumor had it that his speaker was County Executive Fred Peterson, but Bill denied that. Bill finally broke down and admitted he missed the luncheon, because he had a date with a dentist in Redwood City.

Congratulations to Sanford Debow, recently promoted to the position of assistant treasurer, Pacific Tel & Tel. . . . Wrex Cruse and family (Alberta, Betty and Timmie) sailed last Wednesday on the SS Aleutian for Honolulu where they will make their future home. Wrex has a top position there with T. W. Airlines. . . . Paul Allen was threatened with a lawsuit on the grounds his cocker spaniel's barking disturbed a certain neighbor. In the checkup it was found there were 18 other dogs in the neighborhood, and the plaintiff had to admit he didn't know which was the offending critter.

Wish we could think of something brilliant to say in connection with the generosity of our old friend Dan Stafford in making that wonderful gift of property to the city for recreational purposes. All we can think of at the moment is to brag that we have known Dan Stafford for 16 years and that he is a good friend of ours. It is human nature to brag about the great people you know. And to us Dan Stafford is a great person. Little people don't do big things like that. The whole community, through future generations ,will benefit from Dan Stafford's humanness and generosity. Yes, we are mighty proud to know Dan Stafford. And we'll be prouder still in future years to point to "Stafford Park" and say, "the man who made that posible was a friend of ours."

J. C. Penney Remodels Store To Aid Buyers

Mgr. F. Howell Miller Jr. of the local J. C. Penney Co. store announced today that completion of the enlargement and remodeling in progress in the store is expected in the very near future. The enlargement will give the store more selling area than previously, and also a much wider store front. Much of the remodeling consists of the more convenient arrangement of merchandise in the extra space, and the departmentizing of various lines into their own smart shops. These changes will make it possible for Penney customers to proceed with their shopping much more quickly and easily than ever before. In addition to the rearrangement, the entire store will be streamlined, incorporating many of the features of a big city store with the neighborly atmosphere it has always had.

New types of fixtures have been installed for the more convenient and efficent handling of merchandise. A fresh coat of paint will brighten the equipment which will continue to be used. Special departmental markeds add style, as well as making it possible for the customer to find things more quickly and easily than ever before.

"These changes are going to please our customers," remarked Manager Miller. "Shoppers are bound to like their bigger, better Penney's. Our street, complete with bright new fixtures, new showcases, and new selling displays for men's, children's, and women's accessories, will make shopping a real treat!

"New center bays divide our first floor into sections for men's and boys' clothing and furnishings, and for women's furnishings. The jewelry department will please the women, and there are smart little shops for hosiery, slips, accessories and lingerie, set off by special departmental markers.

"Our slipper bar is new and our modernized shoe department will be more completely stocked than ever. Men's and boy's clothing will be handled in a completely restyled section decorated with beautiful natural wood paneling, and the latest in smart, masculine fittings.

"Our pride and joy is our women's ready-to-wear department on the baloncy, with all new flush panel racks. This new style of panel and attached rack allows both more space and more light throughout the department than before. Departmental markers here provide separate sections for millenery, a brand new sportswear department, coats and suits, dresses, cotton shop, infants's wear and foundation," the manager concluded.

Miller joined the J. C. Penney Co. as a salesman at Martinez, in April, 1929, and was transferred in December, 1937, to Monterey. In June, 1943, he became acting manager in the Marysville Penney store. On July 1, this year, when Mr. C. A. Nelson, who had been Redwood City's Penney manager since the local store was opened 16 years ago, retired, Mr. Miller became the regular manager here.

The Redwood City store is one of 139 J. C. Penney Co. stores in California. Opened in May 1929, it rapidly became a favorite with local shoppers. The Penney Co. originally began business in California with the opening, in April, 1914, of the Needles and Chico store. There are 1606 Penney stores in the United States with representation in every state in the Union.

Housebreaker Eludes Police

SAN MATEO—Trapped and slapped, San Mateo's daring daylight housebreak nevertheless eluded San Mateo, Burlingame and Hillsborough police Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Jennie McCammon, 21 12th Ave., caught the housebreaker in a bedroom of her home shortly before 10 a.m. today, slapped him vigorously, then telephoned for police, who threw a net around the area. But while Mrs. McCammon was telephoning, the young burglar vanished, she reported.

Mrs. McCammon described the man as young and as walking with a limp. He was dressed in a two-tone brown jacket with checked sleeves and brown slacks.

Juvenile Held On Attack Charge

A 17-year-old high school student was in the custody of juvenile authorities Tuesday following an altercation in which he allegedly slashed a 16-year-old girl and attempted to tear her clothes Monday near the Redwood City railroad depot.

Redwood City police said the pair had a "date" to meet at the depot when the youth became enraged and slashed at her with a knife.

Asst. Probation Officer Anthony Lovoi, Police Sgt. S. E. Douglass and Chief Dep. Dist. Atty. A. S. Whitmore were investigating the affair this afternoon.

Six More Request Building Permits

City Bldg. Insp. L. M. Duncan Wednesday issued six building permits that brought the total issued thus far this month to $426,925—an all-time high for January permits.

Last year, total for the month was only $28,050, he pointed out.

Socialite Wins Divorce Decree

Mrs. Jane Saroni Washburn, socially prominent on the Peninsula, Monday had been granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from Walalce Wellington Washburn. The decree was granted here by Superior Court Judge Aylett R. Cotton.

Mrs. Washburn was awarded custody of the couple's 6½-year-old son, Wellington. She filed suit for divorce charging cruelty Dec. 29. The couple was married in San Francisco Apr. 20, 1938, and separated Nov. 15.

Appraise Two Large Estates in County

Appraisers Monday valued two estates of San Mateo County residents in excess of $10,000.

Appraiser Bradford M. Melvin listed the value of the estate of Teresa A. O'Connell of Redwood City at $16,126.76.

Recreation Commission To Ask for Park Study

Recreation commissioners will request the city council to authorize employing a recreation engineer to assist in planning recreation sites and projects throughout the city, Donald Bogie, secretary to the commission, disclosed Wednesday.

The recreation plan would "dovetail" a master plan recently authorized by the council at request of the planning commission.

$30,000,000 cash ...on the line

In 1946, your gas and electric company will spend thirty million dollars "on the line"...the power line, the gas line and the job line... for improvements and new construction.

That is our projected construction budget in this new year of 1946 for plant and line improvements—better to serve Northern California.

This thirty million dollars is money spent for the future growth of this area. And we in Northern California must look ahead and be prepared. This is a time to get ready for the growth of new businesses, small or large; for the expansion of local factories or of larger industries backed by outside capital. It is a time to create jobs for our increased population and the development of markets for the products of factory and farm.

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company is now running a series of colorful advertisements in leading national magazines to attract new business and new industries to Northern California. It is a campaign that aims at the live interest of Eastern industries in moving westward. Your gas and electric company will keep ahead of this growth through its multi-million dollar improvement program by providing an abundant supply of electric power and natural gas fuel at rates among the lowest in the nation.

How fresh produce can add zest to winter meals

You can count on these different ways of fixing produce to give your wintertime meals new appeal.

TWIN VEGETABLE OVEN CASSEROLE

This is a delicious and colorful vegetable combination to include along with an oven meal.

Fill one side of a well-greased shallow casserole with shredded carrots, the other side with shredded beets. Add a small amount of hot water. Sprinkle with salt and pepper; dot with butter or margarine; cover tight. Bake in a moderate oven (350°F.) for 30 minutes, or until tender.

PARSNIP SLAW

You'll find this has the most delightfully different flavor. You won't believe how good it is until you try it.

Chill and then peel or scrape 4 or 5 medium-sized parsnips. Shred on medium shredder. Sprinkle with a teaspoon of salt and ½ teaspoon celery salt and then toss lightly until mixed with ⅔ cup sour-cream or salad dressing. Serve at once. Serves 6.

FRIED APPLES

Try these with sausage cakes for dinner or for breakfast some morning with fried scrapple.

Wash, core and slice in ½ inch thick rings 4 large cooking apples. Saute in butter or margarine in a heavy frying pan until slightly brown. Mix together ⅓ cup sugar, 1 teaspoon nutmeg, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, ⅛ teaspoon salt and sprinkle one half of the mixture over the apples. Cook for three or four minutes and turn. Sprinkle with remaining sugar mixture. Continue cooking over low heat until apples are almost transparent. Serve hot. Serves 6.

MARASCHINO WALDORF SALAD

Here's a colorful salad that's festive enough for a party.

Combine 2 cups diced, unpeeled, red apples, ¼ cup sliced maraschino cherries and 1 cup grapefruit sections. Toss lightly with mayonnaise or salad dressing. Serve in lettuce cups garnished with whole cherries. Serves 6.

APPLE SAUSAGE AND ONION CASSEROLE

When the budget's a little pinched, try this simple but tasty dish. Potatoes baked right along in the oven will practically complete the meal.

Shape a pound of pork sausage into 6 or 8 patties. Fry in a heavy frying pan until browned, turning once. Peel and slice into rounds 4 medium-size cooking apples and 2 large onions. Alternate layers of sausage, apples and onions in a 2-quart casserole, sprinkling apples with salt. Cover and bake in a moderately hot oven (400°F.) about 40 minutes, or until apples are tender. Serves 6 to 8.
